

Omni

The Browning

Let me breathe into your bones
Whispering to bring you home
You're not alone
Alone
Alone

We are lost and abandoned
Left to rot by the ancients
Free will is not free when you're a slave
To a tyrant
Sleeping giant
We must defy them
A parasite that feeds off of violence

Omni (ascendant)
Omni (decedent)
Omni (transcendent)
Omni
Death, hate, they want it
Blood, rage, they need it
Doom, pain, forever
Darkness surrounds

Let me breathe into your bones
Whispering to bring you home
You're not alone in my light
But you are lost in zeitgeist

(Let me breathe into your bones)
(Whispering to bring you home)
(You're not alone)
(Alone)
(Alone)

(Let me breathe into your bones)
(Whispering to bring you home)
(You're not alone)
(Alone)
(Alone)

Zeitgeist
Brainwashed in hindsight
Ignore the signs of the infinite timeline
It lives, it thrives
Dark light consuming our minds

Let me breathe into your bones
Whispering to bring you home
You're not alone in my light
But you are lost in zeitgeist

(Let me breathe into your bones)
(Whispering to bring you home)
(You're not alone)
(Alone)
(Alone)

(Let me breathe into your bones)
(Whispering to bring you home)
(You're not alone)
(Alone)
(Alone)

Who will save me from you
Your presence is doom
There's no end in sight
Your heart is where darkness consumes all light

Give me back my light
I will not follow you
Into oblivion
Into the sun

Let me breathe into your bones
Whispering to bring you home
You're not alone
Alone
Alone

Let me breathe into your bones
Whispering to bring you home
You're not alone
Alone
Alone

Let me breathe into your bones
Whispering to bring you home
You're not alone in my light
But you are lost in zeitgeist

(Let me breathe into your bones)
(Whispering to bring you home)
(You're not alone)

(Let me breathe into your bones)
(Whispering to bring you home)
(You're not alone)
