The Browning

Eternal flame
Why did you set me ablaze
What do you feel inside when you lie
Do you deny who you are on the inside

You can lie to me
You can lie to yourself
But in the back of your mind
You know you are a fake
You know you are a disgrace
Fake

Lost trust, you have chose
To betray, to walk away
Routine to be forgotten
It's too late, to walk away

Two faced

In the end
You're just a name
You are a ghost
A dying flame

Lost trust, you have chosen
To betray, to walk away
Routine to be forgotten
It's too late, to walk away

You lie for nothing
Your words are empty
Karma does not sleep
Your world will soon be destroyed

This is the destruction of your world
This is the destruction of your world
This is the destruction
