Prophecy

The Browning

Our world is coming to an end
Says the doomsayer
There is no future
All consciousness will be consumed by the destroyer
The hopeful sadists
Apocalyptic

Our world is coming to an end
With all your hate there is no future
Our world is coming to an end
With all your hate there is no future
Our world is coming to an end

Our world is coming to an end
We are doomed and the prophets have spoken
Our world is coming to an end
Because our souls have broken

The prophecy, I hear it calling, and calling, and calling
The prophecy, I hear it calling, and calling, and calling me
Our destiny, destroying, destroying, destroying Endless void, we are falling and falling and falling in

Your suffering has just begun
You will suffer forever
You will suffer forever

Your world is coming to an end
Because your hateful
Mindset Fatal
Self made prophets will not take control of me
Our world is coming to an end

Our world is coming to an end
Because our souls have broken

Our world is coming to an end
We are doomed and the prophets have spoken
Our world is coming to an end
Because our souls have broken
