

Taken For Granted

The Browning

I will do anything
I will not fail
I will walk through hell
I will follow my destiny
You will not drag me down
You will never take it all from me

My life will not be taken for granted
My life will not be taken for granted

No matter what you say
I know my life has meaning
You just want to see me fail
You want to see me fall

No matter what you say
I know my life has meaning
You just want to see me fail
You want to see me fall

There is nothing that I can not do
There is nothing that I can not prove

I will do anything
I will not fail
I will walk through hell
I will follow my destiny
You will not drag me down
You will never take it all from me

There is nothing that I can not do
There is nothing that I can not prove
