

Leaves

The Bunny the Bear

The leaves are falling
And I've realized lately colors that soft are sure
To blind and take away
The only reason for a life to go on.

(Trust me) I knew that it would happen like this that the exchange of hands was safer than a kiss
(Lovely) Well its safe to say you smothered all trust
that fact escapes me more and more with every touch

(This cant happen anymore...knees still bleeding from the floor)
(Trust me) I knew that it would happen like this
that the exchange of hands was safer than a kiss
(Lovely) Well its safe to say you smothered all trust
that fact escapes me more and more with every touch

The leaves are falling
And I've realized lately colors that soft are sure
To blind and take away
The only reason for a life to go on.

So speak your means in regards to me...
So speak your means in regards to me...
So speak your means in regards to me...

Lay me to sleep
Say trust me
Speak sweet to me
Say sorry
Breath soft on me
Say touch me
Lie me to sleep
Now cut me

The leaves are falling
And I've realized lately colors that soft are sure
To blind and take away
The only reason for a life to go on.

The leaves are falling
And I've realized lately colors that soft are sure
To blind and take away
The only reason for a life to go on.
(go on)
