

Ocean Floor

The Bunny the Bear

You know I'm right here,
Waiting for you
To give my life some reason,
To bring a breakthrough.

You know I'm right here,
Waiting for you to (These words rewind, fade over time)
Give my life some reason,
To bring a breakthrough. (Let's not forget this)

Let's let out words define this situation every time
And everything you say can feed this black hole
(BLACK HOLE)

Let's let our words escape,
A congregation with no faith
They're going strong on hatred and remorse

You know it's gone to piss
When all the black frames resemble nothing
You know it's gone to piss
When all the black frames resemble nothing
(resemble nothing)

You know I'm right here,
Waiting for you
To give my life some reason,
To bring a breakthrough.

You know I'm right here,
Waiting for you to (These words rewind, fade over time)
Give my life some reason,
To bring a breakthrough. (Let's not forget a thing)

Clear the trees
Then you'll see through to me
I'm rotting on the ocean floor
Where seeds of grass abhor their situation

Clear the trees
Then you'll see through to me
I'm rotting in the (ocean)
(And we both know you could never save me)

{...abhor their situation}

Cut off the lights!
Cut off the lights, while singing...

You know I'm right here,
Waiting for you
To give my life some reason,
To bring a breakthrough.

You know I'm right here,
Waiting for you to (These words rewind, fade over time)
Give my life some reason,

To bring a breakthrough. (Let's not forget a thing)

You know I'm right here,
Waiting (Let's not forget this)
For you to give my life some reason,
To bring a breakthrough. (Let's not forget a thing)

You know
(Let's not forget this)
To bring a breakthrough.
(Let's not forget this)
