

Pray

The Bunny the Bear

I knew it then, I know it now
One brick by brick you tore me down
You keep your calm, you're insecure
It's turning into perfect storm
I'll let them find you

No, drag you right from your throne
I'll sit you back up with the strings, I'll swing low
No, no you can't come back home
Sleep in your castle you've built all alone

You better pray to die
You better pray, you better pray
You better pray to die
You better pray, better pray, better pray
To die

You're strong, you're so invincible
And I'm just a fool in search of gold
You're [?] of luck, your heart is stone
[?] been miserable
I'll let them find you out

Drag you right from your throne
I'll sit you back up, pull the strings, I'll swing low
No, no you can't come back home
Sleep in your castle you've built all alone

So here I am, 'cause I caved in
But I don't care where you think I've been [?] where have you been
There's no place [?] here we go again

You better pray to die
You better pray, you better pray
You better pray to die
You better pray, better pray, better pray
To die

Why were we so proud
Can they see us now

You better pray to die
You better pray, you better pray
You better pray to die
You better pray, better pray, better pray
You better pray to die
You better pray, you better pray
You better pray to die
You better pray, better pray, better pray
To die
