

The End Of It All

The Bunny the Bear

There is a hole forming from the sky
Another casualty once ended
I see my death pass before my eyes
I saw my death, I awake on pavement

It makes me sick to know it's all in my own head
Medication never solved anything, I see my past, I know my future
I saw the devil in the eyes of the savior
I see the truth beyond perception

Don't turn away
I'm only trying to help you
Don't make the same mistakes
That will haunt you
But know what's holding you back

I see the life I love slowly deteriorate
Inside this labyrinth inside my mind, following fate, I see the gun
Death looks down upon us
As we seal our fate (as we seal our)
Death will come upon us
At the end of it all, we are all just pawns

Don't turn away
I'm only trying to help you
Don't make the same mistakes
That will haunt you
But know what's holding you back

Time's up

We're all alone at the end of it all
And all we have are the choices we've made in life
Is slowly slipping at the edge of a knife
When all is lost and it fades to darkness

Don't turn away
I'm only trying to help you
Don't make the same mistakes
That will haunt you
But know what's holding you back

Don't turn away (away)
(I'm only trying to help you)
We're all alone at the end of it all (end of it all)
I'm only trying to help you
