Perception Twin

The Butterfly Effect

Push me over the edges, push me over the edges

Suffocating the senses
You strip me defenseless, I know you
Images reflected
I'm raped and molested, touched by you
(And I won't hide till I've gone through)
Perception over reality
And what we see is not always what we see
Deeper inside
You'll find your eyes lie, judge not this time

Alone

Distorted dreams in the silence No vital signs just the violence Tortured frame is empty Scars on my body just ghosts to remind me I burn

Still reflection disturbs you
Twin perception unnerves you
Split in two
(your mirrors pushing back at you)
Beautiful brutality
Self-inflicted these cuts my company
Opposite sides of this coin
Try both sides
I'm yours you're mine

Alone

You scream like a symphony Wicked trick has left me in agony Your malfunction is needing Vertical scars and proof of the bleeding You burn

Your twin with you Within the burning Alone, you'll find I am your twin With you within alone

I burn....

I won't let you burn down.
