

Don't Cry Alone

The Buttersong

Don't cry alone, dear
Don't cry alone
I'll carry you, dear
Into the storm
It shakes me madly
It makes me burn
My thoughts are lonely
For death I yearn
Now don't you see, you're meant for me
You can be mine, eternally

'Til then you cry
'Til then you cry
Out to the sea

Don't cry alone, dear
Don't cry alone
I'll carry you, dear
Into the storm
I could hold you
I could kiss you
I could love you
I could bury you

'Til then you cry
'Til then you cry
Out to the sea
