

Must be brave to ride the tarantula tide
I don't want you to back down when she catches your eye
Through the wave, her lips you'll hear her cry
I don't want you to be afraid

Bend it the right way
And you'll be okay
Just bend it the right way
And you'll be okay
Scout's honor

Must be brave to ride the tarantula tide
I don't want you to back down when she catches your eye
Oh, through the wave, her lips you'll hear her cry
I don't want you to be afraid

So bend it the right way
And you'll be okay
Just bend it the right
And you'll be okay
Scout's honor
