

Let the games begin
She shakes up the room
Walked in like she's ready to sin, just tonight
And I've lost my charm cause I want her

She's too cool, too cool, too cool, too cool to be true
And I'm too slick for my own good
Throwing all the cards on the table, babe
Cause I wanna dance with you
All night

She's a tease
And she's got me begging on my knees
I've gotta
Keep my composure
Cause it's the only way I can have her

She's too cool, too cool, too cool, too cool to be true
And I'm too slick for my own good
Throwing all the cards on the table, babe
Cause I wanna dance with you

All night
All night
All fucking night

Well, she's too cool, too cool, too cool, too cool to be true
And I'm too slick for my own good
Throwing all the cards on the table, babe
Cause I wanna dance with you

All night
