Hello precious, your wit is a bit infectious And it has spread to all the wrong places Gotta love all the familiar faces

See right through you, don't think everything that you do Will slip through the grounds, the cracks, the holes We'll lay you down and hold your neck while you choke.

You'll reach for the goal and fall on your face. Don't forget about the ones, all the kids that you betray We're laughing at you, laughing at you, laughing at you, laughing.

Fake names, fake satisfaction
We can't wait just to see your reaction
We'll be sure to send a postcard, seal it with a kiss
Remind me of the times we'll tell you've missed
You'll lose, you've got nothing to prove

You've made mistakes,
I'm not perfect, nor am I great
But I know I'm 10 times greater than you
It's hard to hear it but it's true.

They think the law's artistic

Make ways, make the kids go ballistic

But they're just new ways to click in space

So here's your knife thrown in your face.

You'll reach for the goal and fall on your face. Don't forget about the ones, all the kids that you betray We're laughing at you, laughing at you, laughing at you, laughing.

Fake names, fake satisfaction
We can't wait just to see your reaction
We'll be sure to send a postcard, seal it with a kiss
Remind me of the times we'll tell you've missed
You'll lose, you've got nothing to prove.

Fake names, fake satisfaction
We can't wait just to see your reaction
We'll be sure to send a postcard, seal it with a kiss
Remind me of the times we'll tell you've missed
You'll lose, you've got nothing to prove
