

Back It Up

The Cadillac Three

Back it up like Michael J moonwalking
Back it up like Cassius Clay trash talking
Chalk it up to that midnight moonlight calling
Start me up gonna roll that stone little darling

Well back it up like an old school pickup truck
Slow and steady take your time like the setting sun
Summer love you know I'm ready
Forget about your daddy
He doesn't need to know that I'm the one
You run to when you wanna light a fire
Baby who else would it be
I love it when you back it up
Cause you back it up into me

Back it up like a sip of cold beer to wash down a double shot o f Jack Daniels
Back it up like a sweet little honky tonk angel
Shake it up into something more than I can handle

Well back it up like an old school pickup truck
Slow and steady take your time like the setting sun
Summer love you know I'm ready
Forget about your daddy
He doesn't need to know that I'm the one
You run to when you wanna light a fire
Baby who else would it be
I love it when you back it up
Cause you back it up into me

Back, back, back, back, back, back it up [x4]

Back it up like an old school pickup truck
Slow and steady take your time like the setting sun
Summer love you know I'm ready
Forget about your daddy
He doesn't need to know that I'm the one
You run to when you wanna light a fire
Baby who else would it be
I love it when you back it up
Cause you back it up into me

Aw yeah you back it up into me girl
