The Call

How do you feel when the talks break down?
How do you feel when the lines are broken?
What do you say when love can't be found?
What do you do when the truth's not said?

What appeals to me
Can't appeal to everyone
What is real for me
Can't be real for everyone

How do you feel when the talks break down?
What do you do when the door won't open?
What do you say when love can't be found?
How can you care when your heart grows cold?

What it means to me
(How do you feel when the talks break down?)
Is not the same for everyone
(How do you feel when the lines are broken?)
What is real for me
(What do you say when love can't be found?)
Can't be real for everyone
(What do you do when the truth's not spoken?)

Still unforgiving, our eyes turn away
Holding us back, holding us back

What do you do when the talks break down?
You against me, when it makes no sense
Stronger and harder we hold our ground
We've poisoned our trust now it's self defence

What it means to me
For one I can't be sure at all
I can see no difference
Between you and me at all
Life on the edge is a way of life here
Life on the edge
Privilege

How do you feel when the talks break down?
How do you feel when the lines are broken?
What do you say when love can't be found?
What do you do when the truth's not said?

What appeals to me
(How do you feel when the talks break down?)
Can't appeal to everyone
(How do you feel when the lines are broken?)
What is real for me
(What do you say when love can't be found?)
Can't be real for everyone
(What do you do when the truth's not said?)

Still unforgiving, our eyes turn away
Holding us back, holding us back

How do you feel when the talks break down?
How do you feel then the lines are broken?
What do you say when love can't be found?
What do you say when the truth's not said?
