

Compromise

The Call

I remember how this whole thing started
Kind of quiet like a drop of rain
I remember how the day we parted
Was kind of quiet like a drop of pain

Could I ever make you happy?
Could I ever compromise?
Could I make you so proud of me?
Could I be the true love in your eyes?

I remember how the night adored you
How the morning sun would light your face
I remember how your heart escaped me
Turned slowly from my love embrace

Could I ever make you happy?
Could I ever compromise?
Could I make you so proud of me?
Could I be the true love in your eyes?

Eyes
Eyes
Oh no
Oh

I forgot or did you ever tell me?
How to give you what your heart desires
How to fill you like the deepest ocean
How to give you what your soul requires

Could I ever make you happy?
Could I ever compromise?
Could I make you so proud of me?
Could I ever satisfy?

Could I ever make you happy?
Could I ever compromise?
Could I make you so proud of me?
Could I be the true love in your eyes?

Eyes
Eyes
Eyes
Hoo hoo hoo
Hoo hoo hoo
Hoo hoo hoo
Hoo hoo hoo
