

Jealousy

The Call

I feel need
The coldness of the night
The coldness in my room
The heat from my body
Like I'm burning up inside
Face it or deny
The battle I'm losing
But life don't end
Love don't end
I feel need

Jealousy, you've got me now
On my knees, you've got me now

It's an old time curse
But, oh, what's worse
Now I feel bitter
It tears friends apart
And envy plays its part
Now I feel weaker
But life don't end
Love don't end
I feel need

Jealousy, you've got me now
On my knees, you've got me now

It takes a lot of heart
When you're stumbling in the dark
But now I feel better
I'm walking on the Earth
And breathing in the air
Now I feel stronger
'Cause life don't end
Love don't end
I feel need

Jealousy, you've got me now
Honestly, you've got me now (now, now)
Oh, jealousy, you haunt me now
On my knees, you've got me now
