

Unbearable

The Call

I've tried to remember
The shape of the face
Eyes were deep
Motions haunt me
I figured my thoughts
Were far from exclusive
There must be a world
Full of people like me

It's unbearable
It's getting unbearable
To be without you
To be this way

The darkness breathes
I'm chilled to the bone
The night takes me over
I'm a goner
It all has that same look
It all has that feel
It could be the breeding
I can't tell for sure from here

It's unbearable
It's getting unbearable
To be this way
To be this way

(Ah hah hah)

What is this that drives
To a final solution?
The debt's paid
I found a cure
Now everybody knows
It's the edge of obsession
That hides in us all
I thought I'd recognize it
I thought I would spot it
Now everybody knows

It's unbearable
It's getting unbearable
To be without you
To be this way
