

Watch

The Call

Watch with me
Hear me now
Come and see
Hear me now
Louder and louder he screams out a name

Lay me down
Wash my hands
Let us dream
While we can
Harder and harder a man tries to change

Watch with me
Tell me now
Pull me in
Show me how
Harder and harder he fights for a change

Watch with me
If you dare
Beauty hides
Show me where

You can fight about what's wrong
You can fight about what's right
(Hardened hearts)
You can worry about what frightens you
In the middle of the night
(Breathe their last)
With a poor man out to rob you
While a rich man holds you down
(Pull me in)
You might even find your light somewhere
In the darkest part of town
(While you can)
Louder and louder and louder he screams out a name
Out a name
