

(S)He Said

The Cardboard Swords

And she said
It's kind of crazy that I like you
Because I don't usually like dudes
I think that I might try to Spend the rest of tonight beside you

And I said, you were cuter before I saw you there
With your drunken lean
You showing me your underwear
You were making a scene
Hoping I would care, but I didn't care
I heard you singing behind my bathroom door
It was an old song so you didn't remember the words anymore
It was humorous, kind of funny to me
Because you always thought
That you knew everything

You asked why they never hold you til morning
While managing to ignore the parts of their bodies
That make them horny
It's a long walk from the east hills to the airport
You had to work at 8
Came to at 6 wondering what the hell you were there for
It's a shorter walk from our house to the amtrak station
The next one won't leave 'til 8 kid, so just wait and be patient
