

Cool Fool

The Cars

From your junkie drawer
You fell onto the floor
Uh then got up up for more

I remember the night
Uh you blew away
You just couldn't wait
You were weakened with love
And you were closin' the gate

From your fair we dem
Your eyes were rough again
I thought I knew you when

I remember the night
Uh you blew away
You just couldn't wait
You were weakened with love
And you were closin' the gate

From your liquid sea
Your shotgun sympathy
Uh then you preached nothin's free

I remember the night
Uh you blew away
You just couldn't wait
You were weakened with love
And you were closin' the gate
(heh heh)
