

Moving in Stereo

The Cars

R: Life's the same
I'm moving in stereo Life's the same
except for my shoes Life's the same
you're shaking like trembolo Life's the same
it's all inside you

It's so easy
to blow up your problems
It's so easy
to play up your breakdowns
It's so easy
to fly through a window
It's so easy
to move with the sound

It's so tough
to get up, so tough It's so tough
to live up
It's so tough on you
