

Too Stupid To Sin

The Cassandra Complex

You think that you can tell me how to live my life
Well, I'm tired of hearing that
I'm tired of hearing that from you
I'm tired of hearing assholes
Telling me I'll never be good enough
Good enough for them
Good enough for you

Stupid!

I see you every night on the T.V.
I see you every day in the city
You're beneath my feet, beneath my words, beneath contempt
You're beneath my pity
Because you're stupid

Stupid!

Too stupid to sin

You think that I must be lonely
Because I don't want to be with you
But you're never alone with an asshole, baby
You never walk alone
You never walk alone!
Because you're stupid

Stupid!

Too stupid to sin

You think that you can tell me how to live my life
Well, I'm tired of hearing that
I'm tired of hearing that from you
I'm tired of hearing assholes
Telling me I'll never be good enough
Good enough for them
Good enough for you

Stupid!

Too stupid to sin

Let your heart fall in!
