

Borders

The Casualties

Smell of death is thick in the air of border towns
Children lie rotting on the apathetic ground
Wind blows hot hatred
There's no love to be found
Laughter rings out loud
Darkness rolls in with the clouds
As another night of sorrows begins

Until death, we will fight!
May the borders we burn light the way
To the revolution that starts today

May the borders we burn light the way
To the revolution that starts today

Life is meaningless when there's profits to be made
Hell on earth is heaven
And in death you will be paid
Wind blows hot hatred
There's no love to be found
Remember, don't forget
Empathy will have it's own effect
As another night of sorrows begins

Until death, we will fight!

May the borders we burn light the way
To the revolution that starts today

May the borders we burn light the way
To the revolution that starts today

Fuck your president and fuck your wall
Fuck your borders and fuck you all!
Fuck your president and fuck your wall
Fuck your borders and fuck you all!
Fuck your president and fuck your wall
Fuck your borders and fuck you all!
Fuck your president and fuck your wall
Fuck your borders and fuck you all!
