The Cat Empire

Let me know where to meet ya
Out the back of the beach house
I had a dream and you featured
You dream, I prowl, but-you-know
I'm an unknown creature...
I wanna know how to reach ya
Take your time and I'll teach ya
Don't you know, I wanna go deeper

La la la la la
La la la la la la la
La la la la la
La la la la la

So when next can I see ya?
At the tree by the steeple
There's a song that keeps repeating
It reminds me of last night
Is it the 'Son of a Preacher'
Man, how'd you go and read my mind?
Because you're such a cliche, but-you-know
I wanna go deeper

La la la la la
La la la la la la la
La la la la la
La la la la la

When the waves lap soft and the moon beams high
Will the rhythm of your body meet the promise of your pride?
The shadow of your face is mirrored in my mind
Is this just a fantasy? I dunno but I wanna go deeper

Let's swim in the night black sea
See if the deep goes deeper
Are you afraid or just dumb like me?
Do you freak out with intimacy?
I wanna see your self in me
But can you keep that secret?
I guess all I really mean
Is I wanna go deeper

La la la la la
La la la la la la la
La la la la la
La la la la la
