

Ready Now

The Cat Empire

When I was six then you were nine
When I was darkness you were sunshine
When you were shame then I was pride
When you were Jeckyll then I was Hide
When you were hope then I was fear
When you were far gone I was so near
When I was peace then you were pain
I'd run away, you'd come again

Why you never let go?
Why you never let go?

When I'm missing, when I'm missing, when I'm missing
Why you never let go?
When I'm missing, when I'm missing, when I'm missing
Why you never let go?

When you were seen then I was not
When you were love then I was cut
When you were cruel then I was kind
When I was yours then you were mine

So tell me now and tell me true
Am I all me or a part of you?
And are you all you or a part of me?
Muhammad Ali "Me We"

Why you never let go?
Why you never let go?
When I'm missing, when I'm missing, when I'm missing
Why you never let go?
When I'm missing, when I'm missing, when I'm missing
Why you never let go?

All things change
(Forever and ever)
All things change
(Forever and ever)
All things change
(Forever and ever)
But your love stays the same

All things change
(Forever and ever)
All things change
(Forever and ever)
All things change
(Forever and ever)
But your love stays the same

I'm ready here, I'm ready now
I've never been so ready now
I've never heard such a sound
As if the sky just hit the ground

Why you never let go?
Why you never let go?

When I'm missing, when I'm missing, when I'm missing
Why you never let go?
When I'm missing, when I'm missing, when I'm missing
Why you never let go?
When I'm missing, when I'm missing, when I'm missing
Why you never let go?
When I'm missing, when I'm missing, when I'm missing
Why you never let go?
Why you never let go?
Why you never let go?
