

Rising with the Sun

The Cat Empire

Hear me when I come
And carry me away
Don't misunderstand
When you hear me say

You're The Only One
Orbison's been playing
Fire is on the street
Lights are on the waves
Rising with the sun
Razor-like the rays
Cuts me to the deep
Glides across her face
It glides across her face

Who we are, who we are
Who we are, who we are
Who we are... some
Who we are, who we are
Who we are, who we are

There's another one
There's no need to fade
Keeps us in the song
Keeps the hounds at bay
Night is on the run
Racing like cocaine
Summer holds the gun
It's about that time again

Who we are, who we are
Who we are, who we are
Who we are... some

Who we are, who we are
Who we are, who we are
Who we are... one...
