

Girl, Why Did You Do That

The Cats

She loved Juan, he was from Spain
My love for her was just the same
He never loved her, oh no, no
He had the needle and the dope

She told him: "I'll go where you go"
They found him dead a week ago
She loved the wrong one so did I
So, please forgive me if I cry

Girl, why did you do that?
Couldn't you have cried?
Couldn't you have come to me?
Girl, you wanted to fly just a little while

All you did was die tonight
Somebody said that she was right
I felt alone there and I cried
Most people said that she was wrong
They turned their head went moving on

Girl, why did you do that?
Couldn't you have cried?
Couldn't you have come to me?
Girl, you wanted to fly just a little while

All you did was die tonight
Somebody said that she was right
