

I'm Going Out (The Same Way I Came In)

The Cats

I'm going out, the same way I came in
Walking straight and proud, no-one will know
My tears won't show how much I cry, 'cause I got pride
Why should I hide?

I'm going out, the same way I came in
But I won't look back, I'll close the door, forever more
For me and you the game is through
I'm leaving you

You didn't expect me to walk in on you, baby, what a surprise
The picture of you in another man's arms, it still burns in my eyes
Oh, baby, why, baby, baby, why, baby, oh goodbye, goodbye

I'm going out, the same way I came in
Walking straight and proud, no one will care
My tears won't show
I wanna cry, I wanna cry, I wanna die

I'm going out, the same way I came in
Walking straight and proud, no-one will care
My tears won't show
I wanna cry, I wanna cry, I wanna die

I'm going out, the same way I came in
Walking straight and proud, no-one will care
My tears won't show
I wanna cry, I wanna cry, I wanna die
