

I Will Follow

The Cats

When you need someone's hands to hold you
I'll give you mine
When you need someone's words to please you
I'll give you mine
Don't care where you'll go, oh, I will follow

All you did when I tried to reach you
You turned away
I'll keep trying until you hear me
Maybe some day
Don't care where you'll go, oh, I will follow

But the time will come that you'll love me forever
It won't be so far away
And my dreams all say that the time is now or never
Tomorrow or some other day

When you need someone's hands to hold you
I'll give you mine
When you need someone's words to please you
I'll give you mine
Don't care where you'll go, oh, I will follow

But the time will come that you'll love me forever
It won't be so far away
And my dreams all say that the time is now or never

Ahaha...
