If You're Gonna Tangle (In A Love Triangle)

The Cats

You and me and him make's three
Baby, you know that just can't be the score
Him and you can't win love too
Lord, I don't know what to do no more

If you're gonna tangle in a love triangle
You're gonna have to pay the price
These kind of things don't work out nice, no way

If you're gonna tangle in a love triangle
There's gonna be one broken heart
So think of that before you start to play

Fun is fun, but when you're done
Who is gonna be the one to stay?
Now who to choose each way I loose
Baby, nothing's worth the dues I'll pay

If you're gonna tangle in a love triangle
You're gonna have to pay the price
These kind of things don't work out nice, no way

If you're gonna tangle in a love triangle
You're gonna have to pay the price
These kind of things don't work out nice, no way

If you're gonna tangle in a love triangle
There's gonna be one broken heart
So think of that before you start to play
