

Jukebox

The Cats

If I didn't have a dime
And I didn't take the time
To play the jukebox
Oh oh oh, Saturday-night
Would have been a sad and lonely night,
for me

And if I didn't see you there
Ruby lips and golden hair
Beside the jukebox
Oh oh oh I then lost my change
To hold you while you danced with me

While the records turned
And turned, we danced
And learned, our hearts that yearned,
For this
'Neath the moon and walked and walked
And talked of love and then we kissed

Now with every sweet caress
Oh my darling how I bless
That little jukebox
Oh oh oh that romantic scene
Wouldn't mean a single thing
Even though you're standing there
With Ruby lips and golden hair
If I didn't have a dime
And I didn't take the time
To play the jukebox

Lalalalalalalala.....etc
While the records turned
And turned, we danced
And learned, our hearts that yearned,
For this
'Neath the moon and walked and walked
And talked of love and then we kissed
