

Only Words

The Cats

You said it so many times
You'd always be mine
But when I needed you most
It was hard for me to find out

That all of your promises
Were always made to be broken
Never meant to keep
You're giving me false hope and the hurtin' is deep

Only words
But they never give an answer
To my questions
They're always far beside the truth

Only lies
That's all I ever get from you
That's all I ever get from you
You, you, you, you

That's all I ever get from you
You, you, you, you

All these endless conversations
Never made any sense
There was no consideration
It was a foolish romance, you never gave it a chance

Only words
But they never give an answer
To my questions
They're always far beside the truth

Only lies
That's all I ever get from you
That's all I ever get from you
You, you, you, you

That's all I ever get from you
You, you, you, you

That's all I ever get from you
You, you, you, you
