

Ridin' Train

The Cats

Rollin' at the railway station
To another destination down the line
Getting tired of balin' hay
I quit that job yesterday and I'm feelin' fine

Now it seems so long ago
Since the day I said hello to this old town
But this world it keeps on turnin'
Maybe someday I might be around, I get on movin'

Ridin' train, keep ridin' through the pouring rain
Headin' for some place out in the sun
Ridin' train, keep ridin', carry me away
To a new horizon, take me away

Can find no reason to hang around
But I keep on smilin'
Nothing's getting me down

Ridin' train, keep ridin' through the pouring rain
Headin' for some place out in the sun
Ridin' train, keep ridin', carry me away
To a new horizon, take me away

To a new horizon, take me away
To a new horizon, take me away
