

Samaina

The Cats

Where is the jasmin I smell
Is this your garden I`m in
Or am I under your spell
Samaina
The sweet wine that I taste
Is it rain from the sky
Come lay your arms around my waist
Samaina

Then we`ll sail away upon your silver wings
Fantasies coming alive
Sail away into my lands of dreams
Somebody tell me where am I

I hear the sound from the sea
Coming in waves on the wind
It`s such a strange melody
Samaina
Your warms your lips on my skin
Just like the rays of the sun
They seems to swallow me in
Samaina

Then we`ll sail away upon your silver wings
Fantasies
Coming alive
Sail away into my lands of dreams
Somebody tell me where am I

I love you, I adore you, I pray for you
Samaina

And then magic moments overwhelming me
Sail away silvers wings
Magic moments overwhelming me
Sail away
samaina
