

Bliss

The Chain Gang of 1974

My lungs are tangled I can't breathe now
These dreams assembled such a shame how Every night is spent comparing others to what I was
I hum along, but it's all sounding wrong

It's all feeling the same
There's gotta be something more than this
Am I wasting away
Waiting for something close to bliss?
It's all feeling the same

I found this photo where did time go?
If I died tomorrow, will it follow?
I've been found and I'm still searching
What else have I to do?
Am I strong enough to see this through?

It's all feeling the same
There's gotta be something more than this
Am I wasting away
Waiting for something close to bliss?
It's all feeling the same
There's gotta be something more than this
Am I wasting away
Waiting for something close to bliss?

It's all feeling the same
There's gotta be something more than this
Am I wasting away
Waiting for something close to bliss?
It's all feeling the same
There's gotta be something more than this
Am I wasting away
Waiting for something close to bliss?

I found this photo
I can't breathe

It's all feeling the same
There's gotta be something more than this
Am I wasting away
Waiting for something close to bliss?
It's all feeling the same
There's gotta be something more than this
Am I wasting away
Waiting for something close to bliss?

It's all feeling the same
There's gotta be something more than this
Am I wasting away
Waiting for something close to bliss?
It's all feeling the same
There's gotta be something more than this
Am I wasting away
Waiting for something close to bliss?
