

Heaven

The Chain Gang of 1974

I heard the voice to push away
I let it go, there's time to wait
Tracing a spark inside my brain
I peel the dark and feed the flame
Eh, eh

I close my eyes
And want to see the light

Will you take me to your
Take, take me to your heaven?
And if I, and if I fall apart
Will I be forgiven?

We wait on history's decay
Between the lines that slowly fade
Eh, eh

We're side by side
Can we touch the sky?

Will you take me to your
Take, take me to your heaven?
And if I, and if I fall apart
Will I be forgiven?
Will you take me to your
Take, take me to your heaven?
And if I, and if I fall apart
Will I be forgiven?

When I'm with you
I can bloom
When I'm with you
I can bloom
When I'm with you
I can bloom

Will you take me to your
Take, take me to your heaven?
And if I, and if I fall apart
Will I be forgiven?
Will you take me to your
Take, take me to your heaven?
Will you take me to your
Take, take me to your heaven?

When I'm with you
I can bloom
