

Bad Advice

The Chainsmokers

Tuesday night

I stumble down 2nd, I'm hoping you read my mind

And I see your lights on

I know you're picking up 'cause you always sleep next to your phone

And I've been giving it up for a minute

'Cause I'm for the streets you're walking on

And now I'm waking you up just to hit it

Till all your sheets are on the floor

If we go there tonight

Yeah, it's just my take, when you make mistakes, you gotta make 'em twice

If we go there tonight

From the way it looks, yeah, I guess I'm good at giving bad advice

But it's not so bad if this don't last for long

It's not so bad if this don't last for long

And I've been giving it up for a minute

'Cause I'm for the streets you're walking on

And I've been waking you up just to hit it

Ah

Till all my sheets are on the floor

You get what you want, but you get less too

I know what I want, and I just want you

It's not so bad, this won't last, no

You get what you want, but you get less too, oh

If we go there tonight

Yeah, it's just my take, when you make mistakes, you gotta make 'em twice

If we go there tonight

From the way it looks, yeah, I guess I'm good at giving bad advice

But it's not so bad if this don't last for long

It's not so bad if this don't last for long

It's not so bad if this don't last for long
