Something Different

The Chainsmokers

You always say what's on your mind
And dance like nobody's around you
Someone like you so hard to find
I can't believe I even found you
I'm tryin' to do this every FaceTime
You know that you had me from the first line
I could listen to a story from you ten times
There's nothing I would clarify

There's something different 'bout you
Something different, something different
There's something different 'bout you
Something different, something different
Need your voice on repeat, all that good energy
All of the aura you bring
There's something different 'bout you
Something different, something different

You're never one to criticize
Even if somebody doubts you
You're always down to stay all night
You watch The Crown like it's about you
And every time you wanna FaceTime
You know that you had me from the first line
I could listen to a story from you ten times
There's nothing I would clarify

There's something different 'bout you
There's something different 'bout you
Something different, something different
Need your voice on repeat, all that good energy
All of the aura you bring
There's something different 'bout you
Something different, something different

I try to do this every night
When I call you 'cause I need to hear your voice
I was running till I fell into your void
Now there is nothing that can change my mind

There's something different 'bout you
There's something different 'bout you
Something different, something different
Need your voice on repeat, all that good energy
All of the aura you bring
There's something different 'bout you
Something different, something different
