The Chainsmokers

I don't know where I've been and I don't know who I am
I woke up in a haze, I don't even understand
Who I am without you
Who I am without you
Who I am without you, oh yeah

I-I-I got all these feelings that I never felt before
But now I got a taste, oh, you got me grabbing more
What am I without you?
What am I without you?
What am I without you? Yeah-yeah

I think I'm losing my mind
Think I'm losing my mind, you
Keep me up all night
Baby, I'm still alive
Think I'm losing my mind
When I open my eyes
Think I'm losing my mind
Maybe I'm still alive

Ba-ba-baby, I'm still losing
Think I'm losing my, think I'm losing my mind
Think I'm losing my, think I'm losing my mind
Think I'm losing my mind
Think I'm losing my
Think I'm losing my

You let me visit there and now the world is in my hands
No, I can't shed a tear even though I know I can
When I am around you
When I am around you
When I am around you, oh yeah

I think I'm losing my mind
Think I'm losing my mind, you
Keep me up all night
Baby, I'm still alive
Think I'm losing my mind
When I open my eyes
Think I'm losing my mind
Maybe I'm still alive

Think I'm losing my, think I'm losing my mind
Think I'm losing my, think I'm losing my mind
Think I'm losing my, think I'm losing my mind
Think I'm losing my, think I'm losing my mind
Think I'm losing my
Think I'm losing my

Think I'm losing my, think I'm losing my mind
Think I'm losing my, think I'm losing my mind
Think I'm losing my, think I'm losing my mind
