

Living In The Footsteps Of Another Man

The Chi-Lites

Living in the footsteps of another man
I said I'm living in
Living in the footsteps of another man
I said I'm living in

His baby's here
So is his darling dear
His child bears his name
Can't face my friends, I'm so ashamed

That I'm living in the footsteps of another man
Know that I'm living
Living in the footsteps of another man
I said I'm living

I've tried so hard
To erase his memory
But everything I do
She still compares that man to me

That I'm living in the footsteps of another man
Know that I'm living
Living in the footsteps of another man
Know that I'm living

Hey baby, it hurts so bad
Hey baby, it hurts so bad

His mail comes here
It's to his darling dear
With a smile on her face
She says "I've got to take this letter to his place"

That I'm living in the footsteps of another man
Know that I'm living
Living in the footsteps of another man
I said I'm living
