

My Heart Just Keeps On Breakin'

The Chi-Lites

A bolt of lightning
Strikes a tree in the forest
An earthquake breaks a window
And you can't count the pieces

And it's all over
In a matter of seconds
But my heart keeps right on breaking

Oh, my heart keeps right on breaking
The whole world keeps on shaking
Even an earthquake stops it's quaking
But my heart don't know when
To quit breaking, no, no, no, no

'Bout the time I think
It's broken in two
Just another promise
Broken by you

How can something hurts so much
Keep right on taking
But my heart don't know
When to quit breaking

No, no, no, no...
