

I'm Gonna Dry My Eyes

The Chiffons

I'm gonna dry my eyes
And wipe away each tear
Don't you worry, baby
I know you'll soon be near

You know, you know you made me cry
But, baby, by and by, you'll understand just why
You left me for somebody new
You left me, but you didn't realize
You need me by your side
But now I dry my crying eyes
If you will forget your foolish pride

Yes, I'm gonna dry my eyes
And won't say that we're through
I know you'll always love me
The way that I love you

I'm gonna dry my eyes
I'm gonna dry my eyes
Yeah, baby, baby
