

Strange Strange Feeling

The Chiffons

I have this strange, strange feelin'
I know that it shows now
I have this strange, strange feelin'
That everyone knows now, oh yeah

I have this strange, strange feelin'
It keeps me rockin' and a-reelin'
It must be love (You know it must be love)
It must be love (You know it must be love)

Oh, I have this strange, strange feelin'
Whenever we walk now
I have this strange, strange feelin'
Whenever we talk now, ah huh

Oh, yes, our heart keeps us flyin'
And I know there's no denyin'
It must be love (You know it must be love)
It must be love (You know it must be love)

I have this strange, strange feelin'
It keeps me rockin' and a-reelin'
It must be love (You know it must be love)
It must be love (You know it must be love)

I have this strange, strange feelin'
'Cause you're mine now
I have this strange, strange feelin'
"Cause you're so fine now, uh huh

Oh, I know, yes, I know
I'll always love you so
It must be love (You know it must be love)
It must be love (You know it must be love)

Ah-ah, ah-ah
Oh yeah
Ah-ah, ah-ah
Uh-huh
Must be love
Be love
Oh yeah
