

Tonight I'm Gonna Dream

The Chiffons

(Picture you're dreamin' high up on a hill
Then you awake and your love's with you still)

Tonight, I'm gonna dream again
Tonight, when I'm with him again

Eat your breakfast, don't you worry
This day will go by in a hurry (I hope so)
Put your skirt on and your blouse down (Oh, yeah)
Fix your makeup, leave the house now (Go where?)
Go to town and window shop around
Oh, he'll be here, girl

Tonight, I'm gonna dream again
Tonight, when I'm with him again

Meet your girlfriend, don't act nervous
The day will go by like it always does (I hope so)
Have a sandwich, do some small talk (Oh, yeah)
Fix your makeup, go out walkin' (Go where?)
'Til the sun starts goin' down again
Oh, he'll be here soon

Go back home and lay your clothes out
Eight o'clock is gettin' closer (I hope so)
So stop your shakin', fix your makeup (I'll cry)
Put your clothes on, tease your hair up (Work it out)
For a few minutes all will be very well
Oh, he'll be here, girl

Tonight, I'm gonna dream again
Tonight, I'm gonna dream again
Tonight, I'm gonna dream again
