

The Male Monster from the Id

The Chills

Theres a part of me that's in disguise
Though I fight to see it won't arise
I'd avoid your eyes, denying Something dark and primal surviving

I have another side I try to hide
It can not escape, cause if it tries
There are defences raised around it
For I chose to keep it surrounded

Gotta stay on guard always
Wanna keep my caveman hidden
Every one has some off-days when we make bad descisions
Each man I've seen has some animal behaviour in him
Some can conceal better the male monster from the id

Got out, destroyed his cage
Saying thoughtless things with mindless rage
And I've seen him harm those I'm close to
With his charms he's so hard to see through

Gotta stay on guard always
Wanna keep my caveman hidden
Every one has some off-days when we make bad descisions
Each man I've seen has some animal behaviour in him
Some can conceal better the male monster from the id
The male monster from the id

I hurt you
I'm sorry
And I promise I won't do it again
And I'm meading all my errors
I really am

But my Mr. Hyde, he lies and lies
He'd take a superman to supervise
But imagine all the damage if the hidden man that took live in Forbidden Planed survieives

I'm not like that every day
I'm not normally that way
You need convincing I can tell
I don't say this very well

I'm sorry
I hurt you
And I promise I won't do it again
I'm meading all my errors
I really am
