

Nice To Meet You

The Chisel

Can't be fucked with the same old shit
I heard you're running your mouth, so face up to it
Gave me a look like you never knew
When I asked you what you're gonna do

Two-faced cunt, all mouth no action
Guess it's better the devil you know
You can't be doing it for your satisfaction
Saw you thinking twice then go home

They all say it's nice to meet you
All they fucking say is it's nice to meet you
They all say it's nice to meet you

Who's that lad who said he knew my story
Who talks to people like he fucking knows me
Gave it some thought and I just can't decide
You flipped a coin, it landed on its side

Gobshite fucker, lost your colour
Say it to my face and tell me what you mean
Now I've got a solution
I want some retribution

They all say it's nice to meet you
All they fucking say is it's nice to meet you
They all say it's nice to meet you
Look into my eyes and say nice to meet you

Now I know you didn't want confronting
Come along so I can tell you something
It doesn't matter that I knew you lied
What hurts more is that you fucking tried

Nice to meet you
Nice to meet you

All they say is nice to meet you
All they say is nice to meet you
All they say is nice to meet you
All they say is nice to meet you
All they say is nice to meet you
All they say is nice to meet you
