

Unlawful Execution

The Chisel

Tell me what's the difference between right and wrong?
When a copper gets to blast a lad who did nothing wrong
Tell me why I shouldn't spit
In the face of every politician who looks to condone it

No matter what they say
They'll do it anyway
And I'll fucking never trust the cunts
I've fucking had enough

You set the rules of the game but can I play them?
'Cos I'd fucking love to see your face when we come
And the only system that would work for me
Would be one where you're all buried six feet deep

No matter what they say
They'll do it anyway
And I'll never fucking trust the cunts
Do you think they give a fuck?

Unlawful execution

Undercover in our pubs
Now there's nowhere left to hide
Plain clothed abusers
Don't care if we live or die
