

Render Love

The Choir

Ash is what fools reap, war what they sow
What does a man gain, who loses his soul?
What can a man rule who conquers his world
Then falls out his window and loses his girl?

Render love
Let there be peace in the land
Reconcile women and man
Lay down your weapons and lift up your fear

Stranger meet brother, pass the peace pipe
See in the man's eyes no stereotype
Love waits at our door the spirit divine
Sow it in your heart, reap it in mine

Render love
Let there be peace in the land
Reconcile women and man
Lay down your weapons and lift up your fear

Render love
Hold out your hand, be the one
Reconcile father and son
Love is the reason you're here

Render love to your world
Render love to your world
Render love to your world
Render love to your world

Render love
Let there be peace in the land
Reconcile women and man
Lay down your weapons and lift up your fear

Render love
Hold out your hand, be the one
Reconcile father and son
Love, after all, is the reason we're here...
