

In Your Fog

The Church

Soul unto soul
Until everybody know
All the lost souls went below
When you see her say hello
Greed unto greed
Until everybody feed

Exhaust a mustang
You burn down a boulevard painted new
When suddenly bang!
You take your last look
You read your last book
You're unobtainable in your fog
Unashame-able like a dog

Greed into greed
Until everybody feed
Meek will be a seed
Need to succeed
Soul unto soul
Until everybody know

And youth must go
You shake from the battle when your bottle is lean
And when you gone
You do the fast bit
You have your last hit

It is delusional
The unreal deal
I'm confused enough
Like an eel

Holy water
Fill me with euphoria
Holy water
Fill me with euphoria

It tastes delusional
The unreal deal
I'm confused enough
Like an eel

You take your last look
You read your last book
You're unobtainable in your fog
Unashame-able like a dog
